Renate Graf was born in Austria. Several important museum shows have been devoted to her oeuvre. Most recently, «Going back in Time and the Silk Roads» at The House of Photography in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, which opened in March 2021, evinces the universal reach of her images. An important retrospective at the gallery Rui Freire in Lisbon in 2019, «The photographer's Chronicles: Thoughts become Images», displayed the extraordinary richness of her photographic language and nuanced black and white palette. Her works are coveted in prestigious private and public collections worldwide. She lives and works in Portugal and France.
